

All-new Astra

Electrify your life

Forget everything you know about Astra; this is like no other that's gone before. It's a brilliant new Plug-in HYBRID-e that delivers up to 180PS of electrified power with the ability to go emission-free for up to 35 miles.

Featuring our bold and pure design philosophy in exciting hatchback form, it not only boasts everyday practicality, but a totally detoxed cabin environment where you sit in ergonomically-designed comfort surrounded by intuitive interior design. It's complete with a dynamic driving experience that features comprehensive safety and driver assistance, including the very latest in semi-autonomous driving and advanced lighting technology.

The all-new Vauxhall Astra is a real driver's car, and it's not hard to see why.

The power of electric

A sophisticated automatic transmission with three driving modes – Pure electric, Hybrid and Sport mode for outright pace when you need it. All-new Astra Plug-in HYBRID-e gives you the best of both worlds. With up to 180PS combined power and a 35-mile pure electric range that will cover your daily commute plus a 1.6 150PS Turbo petrol engine for longer journeys. This is a car you'll love to drive – and own.

- Up to 180PS from Plug-in HYBRID-e technology
- 0-60 in 8.5 seconds
- Three-driving modes: Pure electric, Hybrid and Sport mode

All-new Astra

Endless possibilities

The agility, driveability and comfort of all-new Astra is second to none. Take your pick from a range of enhanced turbo-charged powertrains, including a responsive 1.2 petrol or highly-efficient 1.5 diesel, both delivering up to 130PS alongside the availability of a sophisticated 8-speed transmission with three driving modes.

Ahead of its time

All-new Astra demands attention from every angle. Bold and pure, the finely tuned lines give it a distinctive and confident stance. From the front, the iconic Vauxhall vizer takes centre stage, sweeping effortlessly through the signature LED headlights. The dynamic new look continues with the contrasting floating black roof matched to the black vizer treatment and gloss badge detailing on most models. There's no doubt that the new Astra redefines classic hatchback design.

Comfort and Convenience

Driving without distraction

In a totally detoxed cabin environment, you sit in a lower, sportier driving position within ergonomic active seats specifically designed to support a healthy posture. Those seats can be heated along with the steering wheel and windscreen while the perforated leather front seats are ventilated and can even perform a massage.* Comfortable and uncluttered, it also boasts completely wireless smartphone projection, which displays all your apps onto the 10-inch touchscreen.

So it's easy to see why the new Astra interior is such a great place to be.

Connectivity

Perfectly tuned

The fully integrated Pure Panel digital cockpit gives you a full 20-inches of information and infotainment display. All easily accessed through touchscreen technology or intuitive natural voice recognition to control key communication and cabin functions such as your choice of music, sat nav commands, phone connectivity and even interior climate control. And not only can you go hands-free but you can go cable-free too, with super convenient wireless phone charging.

Safety and Lighting

Smart safety

All-new Astra simply excels when it comes to safety and driver assistance – and it's not hard to see why. The semi-autonomous driving features of Intelli-Drive combined with new and improved IntelliLux adaptive LED® pixel headlights, Intelli-HUD head-up display and Intelli-Vision, are designed to give you unparalleled command and control of your journey.

- Advanced Intelli-Drive systems featuring semi-autonomous automotive technology
- IntelliLux adaptive LED® pixel headlights with 10 different lighting patterns
- Intelli-Vision rear view parking camera for full 360 degree coverage
- Intelli-HUD digital head-up display puts essential driver info at eye level

Forget ordinary

All-new Astra pushes the boundaries. It dares to be different. It redefines the meaning of a compact hatchback, delivering everything expect from your everyday car – and everything you didn't.
